

PROJECT APPLICATION

PROBLEM: What is the problem that this project addresses?

ABSTRACT: (250 words) Summarize the nature of the problem, the specific aims that the proposal will address, the hypothesis that underpins the proposal, the research design and the anticipated results.

STUDY DESIGN: Outline how each of the specific aims will address the hypothesis, how the data will be gathered and analyzed, anticipated results and potential pitfalls in the outcome and strategies for dealing with them.

RESULTS: How will the results be presented, how will they be integrated with the overall mission of the Bernadotte Foundation and plans for presentation and publication.

ANTICIPATED BENEFIT: Successful completion of the project will have on the problem itself, follow on projects, development of ties with other funding agencies and their involvement with the aims of the Bernadotte Foundation.